FREE WATCHLIST

The LinkedIn Watchlist.

I follow 24 top LinkedIn accounts. Claude reads every post they make and flags who actually overperforms, not who looks viral. Here's the current list.

24 accounts tracked | Updated weekly | Real numbers, not guesses

Most "accounts to follow" lists are vibes. This one isn't. Claude goes through every post from all 24 accounts over 30 days and compares each one to that account's own average. Only the real outliers make this list.

THE GIVEAWAY PLAY

Nick Saraev

Gives real systems away free. Steal the format, not the file.

His giveaways beat his own average by up to 32 times.

THE LIST BUILDER

Daniel Bustamante

Runs on email list mechanics, post after post.

Roughly 1 in 4 of his posts outperforms his own baseline. That's a wildly high hit rate for one format.

THE AI EXPLAINERS

Basia Kubicka · Hamna Aslam Kahn · Maja Voje

Claude maps, Karpathy breakdowns, plain-English AI. Different niches, same trick: take something technical and hand it back in owner language.

THE VOICE

Justin Welsh · Lara Acosta

Belief reframes and quoted-doubt openers. The mechanic transfers to any niche, not just theirs.

Everyone else on the list.

The rest of the 24? Claude still reads every post they publish and briefs me weekly. Nothing gets missed, and the list only gets sharper.

Curious how that weekly reader actually works? That's a separate build. Get the framework here: How To Hire Your First AI Employee →

> The owners winning with content aren't chasing virality. They're tracking who consistently beats their own average, then stealing the mechanic.
